Diffuse creates warm light in Molton Brown Spas

The new spa at the Dunbrody Country House Hotel adds an extra dimension to the Georgian manor set in 200 acres of beautiful parkland. The hotel, whose acclaimed cuisine is created by owner and Irish Chef of the Year 2004, Kevin Dundon, is an oasis of tranquility and relaxed elegance on the Hook Peninsula, Wexford, Ireland.

Located across the courtyard in an original stone building, the Spa at Dunbrody puts a new twist on luxury pampering. It is designed by international spa expert Jean-Paul Blissett of the Syntax Group to make guests feel cocooned and at ease from the moment they arrive for the healing and therapeutic treatments designed by Molton Brown.

Together with the crackling fires and fresh flowers, the relaxed environment is enhanced by unique and subtle lighting created in fine translucent porcelain by Diffuse. The contemporary chandelier of tiered, handcrafted strips of porcelain casts a warm and calming atmosphere complemented by Halo pendant lamps in the same matt unglazed material. The porcelain is heat resistant, easy to clean and remains unaffected by time. See website www.diffuse.co.uk
