New Contemporary Chandeliers

Architects and interior designers are drawn to Diffuse's contemporary interpretation of time-honoured chandeliers and larger custom made versions can be seen in showpiece and lifestyle interiors as far afield as Japan, the USA and the Czech Republic, plus prestigious locations nearer to home.

The use of unglazed fine porcelain is unique to Diffuse who create their chandeliers from tiers of handcrafted suspended tiles of paper-like translucence which shed a soft and warm light. The formula and method of producing slip-cast porcelain have been adapted and refined to create a material and effect exclusive to Diffuse. Designed by Lucy and Jason Boatswain, Diffuse lighting can be supplied from stock and a bespoke design service is also available.

Drum chandelier has the timeless elegance of a classic design with a modern touch. It is made up of 58 tiles, each measuring 20 cm x 6 cm wide and comes with an internal diffuser, luminaries and suspension kit. The complete fitting measures 50cm wide and 35 cm high, RRP £838.95 inc. VAT.

See www.diffuse.co.uk for ordering details or call 01462 638 331 to discuss requirements or to interview the designers.

Tom Tom is a slender, modern version of a traditional chandelier. Created from two tiers of fine matt translucent porcelain tiles – the exclusive formulation used for all Diffuse's lighting - Tom Tom casts a warm and welcoming light in any interior setting. The porcelain strips on the top tier measure 6 cm. wide by 30 cm long, and the lower tier 6cm x 40 cm.

Tom Tom comes with 39 tiles, an internal diffuser, luminaries and a suspension kit. The overall dimensions are 35 cm diameter x 60 cm high, and the RRP is £799.47 inc. VAT.
